Yiska rises up from his hard backed seat and stretches those lean Indian muscles until that starched shirt of his is fit to burst. Then he relaxes with an explosive breath and motions toward the door as well as the frost tinged street beyond, "Shall we walk? I have grown weary of sitting."

- "Did you have any particular destination in mind this time?"
- "Aren't you worried about the cold?"
- "I do like a good walk."
- "We are going to talk about the rail-road, aren't we?"
- "I think we should discuss us."
